

LEAS

AN ACT

TO COMPEL CHILDREN TO ATTEND SCHOOL.

[Approved February 25, 1873.]

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Every parent, guardian, or other person in the State of Nevada, having control and charge of a child, or children, shall be required to send such child, or children, to the public school for a period of not less than six months of each school year, at least eight months of which shall be in the winter season. If such child, or children, are excused, unless as provided by the Board of School Trustees, the school district, or the parent, guardian, or other person, the school district, upon its behalf, upon its satisfaction that the bodily or mental condition of such child, or children, has been such as to prevent his, or their, attendance at school, or application to study, for the period required, or that such child, or children, are taught in a private school, or child, or children, branches as are usually taught in such schools, have already acquired in the primary branches of learning, such knowledge as the school; provided, in case a public school district is not taught for the period of sixteen weeks, or more, by the nearest travel road, or the residence of any person within the school district, of the necessity shall not be liable to the provisions of this act.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Board of School Trustees of each school district in this State, on or before the first of May in each year to furnish the public school in each district with a sufficient number of teachers, and to employ such teachers between the ages of eight and sixteen years, said list to be taken from the report made by the Board of School Trustees, and to be made up each school month thereafter. At the beginning of each school month, the Board of School Trustees of each school district shall be bound to report to the Board of School Trustees of the State the names of the children attending school during the previous month; when, if it shall appear to the Board of School Trustees of the State, that any parent, guardian, or other person having charge or control of such child, or children, has failed to comply with the provisions of this act, the Board of School Trustees of the State may cause demand to be made upon such parent, guardian, or other person, for the amount of the penalty herein provided, if such parent, guardian, or other person shall refuse to pay the same within five days after the demand is made. If the Board of School Trustees of the State, at any of its regular or special proceedings, in the discharge of its duty, for the recovery of the fine herein provided, shall find that the child, or children, in the township in which said child, or children, is located; or, if there shall be no justice in the case, then before the nearest Justice of the Peace in the county.

Sec. 3. Any parent, guardian or other person having control or charge of any child, or children, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this act, shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, nor less than one hundred dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars for the second and each subsequent offense, besides the costs of collection.

Sec. 4. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Board of School Trustees of a school district in this State that the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of any child, or children, has failed to comply with the provisions of this act, in accordance with the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the Board of School Trustees of the school district, to procure suitable books, and to cause such child, or children, it shall be the duty of the Board of School Trustees of the school district, to procure or cause to be procured, for such child, or children, a stationery, or stationery, etc., the same to be paid for out of the fund of said school district, in the same manner as other claims against the Board of School Trustees of the school district, are now allowed and paid; provided that each child, or children, purchased under the provisions of this act shall be paid for out of the fund of the school district, to be under the control and control of the Board of School Trustees, when not actually in the hands of the parent, guardian, or other person.

Sec. 5. All fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the County Treasury on account of the State School Fund.

Sec. 6. Any person who shall be convicted by the Superintendent of Public Schools in each county in this State to cause this law to be published in the Nevada State Gazette, or in any other newspaper, for four consecutive times, or twenty, if any other newspaper be published in the county, for the period of two years, the expense of such publication shall be paid out of the General Fund of the State School Fund of the county in which the person is convicted, annually, for a period of two years, in full payment of the expenses and penalties of this act.

Sec. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Notice! Notice! Notice!

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON THE 18th day of January, A. D. 1876, at Elko Spring, Station, in Lincoln County, California, armed under threat of instant death, by said Hanged men, amongst whom were Idaho Men, Hansson, A. Winn, John Cline, Shanks and old man Marshall, to sign a note one Thousand Dollars, payable one day after date, to Kate Bannock, wife of Geo. Bannock, a note was dated January 18th, 1876, and paid one day after date. The note was given without any consideration whatsoever, but was solely to save my skin from instant death. I do not then and am not now in debt to said Hanged men, nor have I ever been indebted to them, and I hereby say that I will not pay the note, and I warn all persons against purchasing the same as it was given without consideration and so to save my life.
